your business advisors

Mark Capelin - Franchise Director - Vision Personal Training

From a personal trainer earning $50,000 a year to a studio owner with a $300,000.00 profit in six short years, Mark leads one of Australia's fastest moving studio chains alongside Andrew Simmons. Mark will openly guide you through the systems to the Vision success and take you through a tour of what is required to run multiple 7-figure studios.

From building and selling world class boutique 5 star style clubs to owning online style businesses, Fiona continues to achieve great business success in her many health and fitness ventures. Fiona will share with you the key elements in building a community of people who support your business both online and using traditional models. By connecting people through social interaction, you can make a positive difference to more people.

Scott Krywulycz - CEO - PT Plus International and Studio Plus

"Everyone seems to have great ideas, however only a few put action around them" is the overview from Scott. Working with thousands of different people over the last five years he has identified the common roadblock is fear of failure, fear of success, lack of confidence and belief. Most people won't achieve because they surround themselves in the wrong environment, use the wrong business model and have no strategy. Create a business away from pain and learn to enjoy the pleasures.
